

IICA Bahamas Poster Competition 2009

Poster 1 – Tina Adderley

L. W. Young Junior High School – Grade 8

“The Influence of Global Warming on the Caribbean Agricultural Sector”

Soil Erosion

Poster 3 - Game Atilus

L. W. Young Junior High School – Grade 8

“The Influence of Global Warming on the Caribbean Agricultural Sector”

Hurricane/Storm Effects

Poster 2 – Tranna McPhee

L. W. Young Junior High School – Grade 8

“The Influence of Global Warming on the Caribbean Agricultural Sector”

Drought Effects

Poster 4 - Erin Stubbs

T. A. Thompson Junior High School - Grade 9

“Agriculture in Action around the Islands in the Bahamas”

Poster 5 - Ewardo Meadows

Anatol Rodgers Senior High School – Grade 11

“Agriculture in Action around the Islands in the Bahamas”

Poster 6 - Clementia Ellis

T. A. Thompson Junior High School – Grade 9

“The Influence of Global Warming on the Caribbean Agricultural Sector”

Hurricane Effects

Objective

Choose three winning posters that will be used to create a display area at the Finn Damtoft Agricultural Library.

Participants

All Government High School students (Jr. and Sr.) where there are agriculture courses offered.

Evaluation criteria

1. Interpretation of the Theme of the contest
2. Colour use
3. Creativity
4. The posters should not have been submitted in previous contests. The decision of the jury will be non-contestable. Again, the judges’ decision is FINAL.

The judging process was a two-fold one:

1. The posters were judged by a professional artist.
2. The posters were voted on by a cadre of agricultural /business professionals.

All Awards have been donated:

Many thanks to our sponsors!!

- Bahamas Food Services, Ltd.
- Green Systems Ltd.
- Bahamas Co-operative League Ltd.

And the winners are:

- 1. Clementia Ellis
- 2. Erin Stubbs
- 3. Ewardo Meadows

Honourable Mention - Tina Adderley

School with the most entries: L. W. Young Junior High School